The MARYLAND GAZETTE.

[XIXth Year.] THURSDAY, September 29, 1763. [No. 960.]

M A D R I D, May 21.

THE King is building a Cloſet all of China, at his Palace of Aranjuez; the Richneſs and Elegance of which all the Connoiſſeurs agree can only be exceeded perhaps by that at Naples, built likewiſe by his Majeſty's Directions before he came to the Throne of Spain. As ſoon as the Ceiling of this Cloſet is finiſhed, it may be eſteemed one of the Curioſities of this Monarchy. His Majeſty has alſo eſtabliſhed a China Manufactory in this City.

Breſt, May 25. As faſt as the flat-bottomed Boats arrive, and are unladen, they are ſent to Nantes for Ship Timber, and a new 64 Gun Ship is juſt put upon the Stocks here.

Toulon, June 24. We are very buſy in fitting out two Arm'd Frigates, and two Xebeques, and two others lately arrived are ordered to be refitted with all Expedition, and to join the others. This ſmall Squadron is intended to cruize on the Coaſt of Barbary, particularly off Sallee.

Hague, July 1. Upon the Complaints made ſome Time ſince by their High Mightineſſes, of the Outrages committed by the Rovers of Tunis, Morocco, and Tripoli, upon the trading Subjects of the Republick in the Mediterranean, and that they had even taken ſome of their Merchant Ships; a Frigate was diſpatch'd to Conſtantinople, to know if theſe Outrages were practiſed by the Conſent of the Grand Signior, which Frigate being returned, the Capt. has reported, that ſo far from patronizing thoſe Piracies, his Sublime Highneſs will cauſe the ſtricteſt Enquiry to be made into the Behaviour of theſe Barbary Rovers, and puniſh them as they ſhall appear to have deſerved.

Paris, June 7. The Artificers continue to work with great Diligence in all the King's Yards, in order to repair our Marine, and it is aſſured that the Court is treating for the Purchaſe of ſeveral Ships both in Denmark and Sweden.

L O N D O N, June 20.

It is ſaid the Dutch are preparing a formidable Armament to protect their different Settlements in the Eaſt Indies. Beware of their Proceedings, Old England!

June 21. As our American Provinces have been at great Expence during the War in Cloathing and Paying Troops, that Expence is to be brought to a national Account, in order to make them Satiſfaction.

It is ſaid that Commodore Hervey, in his Majeſty's Ship Centurion, with four or five ſmaller Ships, will in a ſhort Time ſail for the Mediterranean; and that the Duke of York will go with this Fleet, and landing from Time to Time in Italy, viſit the different Parts of that Country incog. under the Title of Earl of Ulſter.

By private Letters from Holland, we learn that a Squadron of 8 Ships, each carrying 20 Guns, and 300 Men, is fitted out with all poſſible Diligence for the Eaſt-Indies, to recover and maintain the Settlements of the Dutch Eaſt-India Company in the Iſland of Ceylon. Of theſe Veſſels, four are fitted out by the City of Amſterdam; two by Rotterdam, one by Dort, and one by Delft.

July 7. The Hanover Packet Boat, Capt. Sherburn, is arrived at Falmouth from Liſbon, that brings Letters, which give an Account, that as the Lord Clive Privateer, with other Ships, was attempting to take Nova Colonia from the Spaniards, in battering the Fort ſhe took Fire, and blew up, and ſeveral of the Crew periſhed; and that Capt. M'Namara, Commander of her, ſhot himſelf with a Piſtol, not being able to bear the Diſappointment. The Ambuſcade, her Conſort, with ſome other Ships, returned to Rio de Janeiro. They had taken ſeveral Prizes, but it is ſuppoſed the Treaſure and Effects, being on board the Lord Clive, are all loſt.

Another Account ſays, that the Lord Clive Privateer, Capt. M'Namara, who had taken a very rich Prize, and put the Treaſure on board his own Ship, afterwards, in attacking a Spaniſh Fort called Nova Colonia, his own Ship by ſome Accident blew up, and he with 250 of his [illegible] periſhed.

July 8. We are told, that beſides Mr. Wilkes, who appeared at both the Trials at Guildhall, and received the repeated Congratulations of the Public, many Perſons of Diſtinction were preſent. Particular Marks of Reſpect were paid to the Gentlemen who managed theſe intereſting Cauſes with ſo much Spirit and Reputation.

It is obſerved, to the Honour of the Attornies concerned on either Side, that theſe Cauſes were conducted with ſo much Ability, Clearneſs, and Preciſion, that the utmoſt Dignity, Order, and Decency were preſerved during the whole Trials. A more glorious Conteſt has not been known for many Ages.

On Saturday was opened over the North Door of Weſtminſter Abbey, a Monument with the following Inſcription:

" To the Memory of CHARLES WATSON,
" Vice-Admiral of the White, Commander
" in Chief of his Majeſty's Naval Forces in
" the Eaſt-Indies, who died at Calcutta the
" 16th of Auguſt, 1757, in the 44th Year
" of his Age:
" The Eaſt-India Company, as a grateful Teſ-
" timony of the ſignal Advantages which
" they obtained by his Valour and prudent
" Conduct, cauſed this Monument to be " erected."

The Admiral is repreſented in full Proportion, ſtanding upon a Pedeſtal, with a Branch of Olive in his right Hand, looking towards a beautiful Figure of a Woman in a kneeling Poſture, returning Thanks to the Admiral for her ſafe Deliverance from Impriſonment in the Black Hole, and underneath are the following Words, Calcutta freed, January 11, 1757.

On the other Side the Admiral, is the Figure of an Indian Priſoner, ſitting chained to a Pillar, looking with a dejected Countenance, but caſts a contemptuous Look towards the Admiral. Over him is wrote, Chander Nagor taken March the 23*d*, 1757; and under him, is, Shereah taken, February 13, 1756. The whole is performed in a very maſterly Manner.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Berlin, to his Friend at London, dated June 14.

" Our King, with his uſual Alertneſs, has been taking a Journey into his Pomeranian Provinces; and is now viſiting the Country of Cleve. I ſee, by your public Papers, that you are not quite delivered from the tumultuous Scenes of Diſcord. However amuſing this may be to People at a Diſtance, it muſt be a mortifying Thing to an Engliſh Patriot, to ſee the Conſtitution of his Country abuſed, and the Bleſſings of Peace in a great Meaſure loſt, by the unreaſonable Jealouſies of a never-ſatiſfied Nation. Pardon me, my dear Friend, this free Remark. But, indeed, your Iſland makes at preſent but an uncouth Figure abroad. It would almoſt tempt one to prefer abſolute Monarchy to a free State, attended with ſo much Licentiouſneſs."

It is ſaid that at the Meeting of Parliament Petitions from the ſeveral Boroughs in Scotland will be preſented to the Houſe, requeſting Redreſs for the many virulent Papers lately publiſhed, tending to raiſe Diſſenſions and Diſturbances between the North and South Britons, and to alienate the Affections of the former from the latter, to the Danger of both.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, July 2.

" Captain Steward of the Elizabeth Indiaman, might have been ſaved, but he abſolutely refuſed it: He ſaid he could not ſurvive the Loſs of his Ship, if he was ſaved; therefore would abide by the Ship. He was ſeen to leap from the Quarter Gallery juſt before ſhe blew up."

July 9. The Lords of the Admiralty have reſolved to meet, for ſome Weeks, every Thurſday, at Ten in the Morning, to examine Seamen worn out or become decrepit in the Service of their Country, in Order to their being minuted for Admiſſion into the Greenwich Hoſpital, or to their being placed upon the Liſt of Out-penſioners.

Capt. Mene Zyden Ploeger, Maſter of the Ship [illegible]berg, from Embden, writes to his Friend at Newcaſtle, that he was attacked the 26th of March laſt, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, one Mile and a Half N. W. of Bevezyr, in his Paſſage to Bourdeaux, by an Engliſh ſmall Ship or Brigantine, who boarded him with 8 Men well armed, and took from him 51 Boxes of Green Tea, and 30 Cheeſes belonging to a Merchant at Embden, with ſeveral other Things, conſiſting of Cables, &c. and then ſtripped the Captain quite naked, leaving him in a miſerable Condition. The Captain further writes, that he ſaw the ſame Brigantine go in between Bevezyr and Zingell; and preſumes, that they muſt certainly diſpoſe of their Plunder there; by which, it is hoped, a Diſcovery may be effected; and they puniſhed according to their Demerits.

July 14. By ſome Letters from Cadiz we have an Account, that Capt. Barcelo, Commander of a Frigate in the Service of Spain, had taken two Algerine Cruizers, with 99 Moors on board, killed and wounded 22, and releaſed 11 Chriſtian Slaves on board the ſaid Cruizers, near Bemedorney.

If we may credit ſome Advices from France, they are doing all in their Power to eſtabliſh their Colonies in America upon a firm Foundation, and expect 60 or 70,000 Inhabitants from Canada to ſettle at New Orleans, and on the Weſt-ſide of the Miſſiſſippi.

Extract of a Letter from Malden, dated the 12*th Inſt.*

" Yeſterday Morning a great Number of the principal Inhabitants of this Town, and the Neighbouring Country, went on Horſeback to Danbury, where they met his Majeſty's Picture, preſented by John Huſke, Eſq; to this Corporation; it was fixed on a handſome Carriage, drawn by ſix Horſes, decorated with Ribbons, and on the Top were three Flags; the firſt having this Motto, George the Great and Good; the ſecond was the Union; and the third had for its Motto, Dignity to the Crown, and Liberty to the Subject.

" At eleven o'Clock the Picture entered this Town, and paſſed on to the Town Hall, preceded by the People who went to meet it, and an elegant Band of Muſic, playing, God ſave the King, &c. It was received under a triple Diſcharge of Artillery, accompanied by Bells ringing, Flags, Streamers, &c. flying, and the Acclamations of a vaſt Concourſe of People aſſembled on this Occaſion.

" The Picture was immediately exhibited to the Multitude in the Balcony of the Town-Hall, under another Diſcharge of Artillery, &c. after which it was received by the Corporation in their Formalities, and placed in the Hall. It is really a magnificent Picture: The King is painted in Parliament Robes, pointing to his Crown and to Magna Charta; but what makes it truly valuable, is, its being a moſt ſtriking Likeneſs of his Majeſty.

" The Corporation gave a grand and elegant Dinner to Mr. Huſke, and ſeveral other Gentlemen; after which many loyal Toaſts were Drank: And in the Evening there were Bonfires and Illuminations, and a great Variety of fine Fire-works were played off, great plenty of Beer was given to the Populace, and the whole was concluded by a Ball, which did not break up till four o'Clock this Morning."

Birmingham, July 11. The Collection in this Town laſt Week for the Colleges at Philadelphia, and New-York, amounted to 203 l. 3s. 8d.

Extract of a Letter from Market-Hill, dated July 4.

" Laſt Thurſday there were aſſembled upwards of 10,000 Perſons taking the Ceſs of the Country, and laſt Saturday there were at leaſt 8000 in Rich Hill, of which I was obliged to be one, and every one in Market Hill was obliged to go, and all marched from Rich-Hill to Dean ——, and got from under his Hand, not to take any ſmall Dues for the future, and did the ſame with Dean ——, and from that we went to Counſellor —— of Tandaragee, and he agreed to level the Commons of Tandaragee, which Mr —— had ditched up and fed theſe ſeveral Years paſt; they alſo turned Cattle out of the Pound, and got a Drum from him, which we have, but we are to return it again; there is not a Town in this County but what has raiſed from the Country at leaſt 4 or 500 Men, ſo you may judge how many there are up in Arms. They were here with Sir ——, and he very freely gave them what they aſked him, which was, not to demand any of the Taxes laid on at the Aſſuach, and they were with Dr. [illegible] Gentleman in the County except [illegible] ——— the Mountains, but we are all to go to him next Wednesday, and I am ſure there will not be leſs than 20,000: They are to come from [illegible] and meet in this Town: We all wear Branches of Oak in our Hats, and are called Oak Boys; you muſt be one when you come down; if any one refuſes going when they are aſked, they are immediately taken and made to ride a Mile upon a Stick, and are heartily ducked."

Oxford, June 18. The magnificent allegorical Paintings of the Cieling of our Theatre were laſt Year retouched, beautified, and repaired at a prodigious Expence, by which it is rendered the moſt ſuperb Room in Europe.

N E W - Y O R K, September 19.

We hear from South-Carolina, that the Difference between the Governor and the Aſſembly has never yet been accommodated, and that mean while the public Buſineſs lies neglected.

The Earl of Halifax Packet, Capt. Jeffery, failed from hence Yeſterday, with the Mail for Falmouth.

We hear from Albany, That about the Beginning of this Month, Sir William Johnſon was greatly engaged in a Congreſs with the Five Friendly Tribes; who ſignified their hearty Inclinations to the Engliſh, aſſuring him of their Endeavours to reconcile the diſtant Tribes to the ſame Intereſt.

Extract of a Letter from the Havanna, dated Aug. 7.

"The Spaniards are buſy in fortifying this Place, 5000 Negroes are employed daily in clearing the high Ground near the Moro, where they intend to build a ſtrong Fort: Moſt of the Deſerters from our Army came here a few Days after General Kepple failed; they hoped to have been Time enough to be pardoned, but were too late, and are now in the moſt wretched Way, being deſpiſed even by the Spaniards, who deny them the common Neceſſaries of Life; for my Part I own I never was ſo much moved as when ſome I knew, told me of their Miſery and Repentance; it is ſaid they will be ſent to the Mines, and there employed during the Remainder of Life: What a Pity it is, ſo many brave Men ſhould bring eternal ruin on themſelves."

P H I L A D E L P H I A, September 22.

On the 15th Inſtant put into this Port, in Diſtreſs, the Snow Saville, John Shield, Maſter, belonging to Hull, where ſhe was bound with a Loading of Naval Stores from Cape-Fear, which Place ſhe left the 31ſt ult. It is thought ſhe muſt be all unloaded, to come at, and ſtop, her Leaks.

Extract of a Letter from London, July 16, 1763.

"The Governors for our late Conqueſts are appointed; General Murray Governor in Chief for all Canada, with four Lieutenant-Governors under him; Capt. Johnſon, late Commander of a Man of War, for Penſacola, and South Florida; and Col. James Grant for Auguſtine, and North Florida. Lord Colville is alſo appointed Commander in Chief of all the Guard and Cruiſing Ships on your Coaſt, from Halifax to Georgia."

Since our laſt an Expreſs came in from Pittſburgh, by which we learnt that all was well there; and that they had Plenty of Proviſions, and all other Neceſſaries, in the Fort.

We have received no Accounts from any Part of the Frontiers, relating to Indian Affairs, for this Week paſt.

A N N A P O L I S, September 29.

Wedneſday and Thurſday Night laſt, there was ſo ſmart a Froſt in many Parts of the Province, that it kill'd great Quantities of Tobacco; and in ſome Places hurt young Corn.

Thurſday laſt was very decently Interr'd here, the Remains of Mrs. HELEN TOOTELL, Widow, aged 73 Years, one of the oldeſt Inhabitants of this Town. She was a good Wife, tender Parent, kind Neighbour, and exemplary Chriſtian.

On Tueſday Morning the 20th of this Inſtant, Died, Mrs. HANNAH PLATER, the amiable and virtuous Comfort of GEORGE PLATER, Eſq; of St. Mary's County, and Daughter of RICHARD LEE, Eſq; She was in the full Bloom of Life, and had not been Ten Months Married.
